NZX IPO Masterclass – the New Zealand King Salmon Listing Story

NZX hosted an IPO Masterclass in Auckland today – the New Zealand King Salmon Listing Story.

New Zealand King Salmon listed on the NZX Main Board in October 2016 raising $30 million to fund future growth opportunities. Since listing, its share price has lifted 17% and follows a strong financial performance and sales growth.

New Zealand King Salmon presented at the IPO Masterclass alongside its advisory team – Chapman Tripp, First NZ Capital and Macquarie Group. New Zealand King Salmon Chief Financial Officer Andrew Clark provided an overview of the company’s listing story, and the opportunities and challenges of listing on NZX.

Andrew Clark commented: “Being listed on the NZX has extended far beyond the benefits of raising capital. For New Zealand King Salmon, listing has helped reinforce our brand both domestically and globally, it has supported our growth aspirations, and increased the transparency of our company.”

NZX’s IPO Masterclass was attended by more than 30 owners and managers of a diverse group of private New Zealand companies who are considering listing as a capital raising option.

NZX CEO Mark Peterson commented: “NZX’s IPO Masterclass plays an important role in educating New Zealand companies about the benefits of listing. Strong and healthy capital markets are core to the success of New Zealand’s broader economy, and it is fantastic to see such a variety of companies considering the opportunities that listing creates.”

New Zealand King Salmon’s presentation slides are attached to this press release.
